

TITLE:

Part 2 : Profile of the contributors(alphabetical order)

AUTHOR(S):

CITATION:

Part 2 : Profile of the contributors(alphabetical order). Lifelong education and libraries 2003, 3

ISSUE DATE:

2003-06

URL:

<http://hdl.handle.net/2433/43664>

RIGHT:

Part 2: Profile of the contributors (alphabetical order)

PETER VODSEK is professor der Hochschule der Medien/University of Applied Sciences, Stuttgart. He has published many works on German library history and on library education.

WU ZHONGKUI is professor and vice-president of Institute of International and Comparative Education Research, Beijing Normal University. He has written many monographs and works on comparative education. Now he is engaged in the research projects on the international comparison to the system construction of lifelong learning.

YOUNG-KUY KIM is associate professor of a library and information science at Schilla University. She has published many works on technical services. She gained a visiting professor status and stayed a year at Graduate School of Education, Kyoto University.

KAORI OKUMOTO is a Ph.D. student, Institute of Education, University of London, UK. Her main interest is in lifelong learning and comparative education. She is a member of Comparative Education Society of Europe, as well as several academic societies in Japan.

FRANK YOUNGMAN is Professor of Adult Education in the Department of Adult Education, University of Botswana. He has written books and articles on adult education in Africa and globally from a political economy perspective.